

From the Director

Hello teenagers ... If you are 12 to 19 years old, here is your personal invitation to PYC '18!!!

This is my favorite week out of the whole summer. I do not plan on being disappointed this year. We have a tremendous evangelist coming to minister to us from God's Word. There will be some great music too as groups from several Bible Colleges join us for the week. Besides that, I'm expecting a group of great teens will be at PYC '18 and that hopefully will include you.

Bible Bowl, sports and afterglows are all very exciting. I've heard some talk that there is to be a new 'sport' this year. Instead of kickball another type of 'ball' game will be happening!!! Some of you will be thrilled about it. Historically, softball and volleyball have always been exciting and challenging as teams play for the win. Win or lose there is fun for all!

The part of PYC that is most important to me is the spiritual part. I'm looking forward to the times when God comes and speaks to us. I have been acquainted with our evangelist for over 3 decades and I'm convinced that he wants to point us to the Christ of Calvary, the Lamb of God!! I'm praying that we all have a Divine Encounter at PYC '18. I invite you to join us!!!

—Rev. John S. Zeigler, Director

Rules

1. I will cooperate in the activities and display conduct in keeping with Christian character.
2. I will not leave the grounds without permission from the Camp Director.
3. I will dress appropriately. Jeans and slacks will not be permitted for girls; skirts should be sufficient length to cover the knees whether sitting or standing. No clothing should be form fitting or revealing. All shirts must have sleeves. "Shorts," culottes and cap sleeves are not acceptable! Full length pants for boys.
4. PYC requests that all electronic devices be left at home, excluding the cellular phone.
5. Couples will not be allowed to be alone on campus. Kissing, hugging, and holding hands are not permitted.
6. Campers are to be between the ages of 12-19 (MUST be 12 by the end of youth camp).
7. No fireworks, books or magazines.

Any failure on my part to comply with these rules is just cause for my dismissal from the camp grounds without a refund of the registration fee.

What to Bring

1. Linens: sheets, pillows, blankets, washcloths and towels.
2. Toiletries.
3. Clothes: everyday clothes, dress clothes for night services.
4. Jacket or sweater in case of cool or wet weather.
5. Bible and musical instruments.
6. Money: soft drinks, candy, fast food will be available on the grounds and at the snack stand.

Featured Speaker

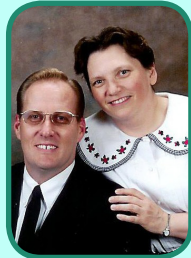

Brian Spangler

Bro Spangler has been married to Cheri for over 30 years. Their home has been blessed with 3 children, Marie, Brian II and Kevin. He has been a pastor for 23 years and traveled in evangelism for 6 years. Bro. Spangler started Pennal Youth Camp (known to them as PYC ☺) about 20 years ago.

He was the Director for 10 years. That PYC is still in operation!

Bro Spangler is a member of the Board of Directors of his Alma Mater, Penn View Bible Institute. He is presently the pastor of New Columbia God's Missionary Church.

This couple comes to us as our Evangelist for PYC '18 to minister in song as well as preaching. Bro. Spangler loves to have fun, we will probably laugh with him at times and maybe laugh at him at other times; his main goal in coming to PYC '18 is to help you as campers, make it to heaven. He will share from God's Word, providing instruction in righteousness and what it means to walk with our Saviour.
